Department of Information Technology

Order

No. 1(97) DOIT/Website/2001/200

It has been observed that a number of Websites created by various Departments/Corporations/Autonomous Bodies are not properly maintained or updated. As a result, these websites continue to display old and outdated information. This creates a negative impression only about the concerned department but about the entire Government.

A Portal or Website serves as an important link between the Government & Citizens. It presents the face of the Organization, its Mission, Vision, functions, activities, performance, etc. It provides features enabling members of the public to give their views/feedback for further improving governance. It is therefore imperative, that creation of websites is regulated & monitored to ensure that the sites created are properly maintained/updated & linked.

In view the above, the following instructions are issued for strict compliance with immediate effect:-

- i. Any Government Department/Corporation or Autonomous Body desirous of opening a website shall obtain approval of IT Department, before opening the new Website. Before approving the proposal, IT Department will bring it to the notice of the Government.
- ii. In approving any proposal for creation of new website, the IT Department, will take into consideration the arrangements made for updating and maintenance of the website by the Department/Corporation/Autonomous Body.
- iii. Once a website is created, the Head of the Department/Executive Officer of the Corporation/Autonomous Body shall ensure that the website is regularly updated and maintained and shall furnish a certificate to this effect every quarter.
- iv. IT Department shall also review the operation of the existing websites of various Departments/Corporations/Autonomous Bodies in order to ensure that the Departments make arrangements for their maintenance and updatation.

- v. IT Department shall have the overall responsibility to monitor and regulate the operation of websites and enforcement of the guidelines issued in this regard.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

Dr. Vijay Madan, Development Commissioner & Secretary (IT).
